

LOST IN THE FORESTS.

A Little Girl Separated From Her Companions Wanders in the Fastnesses of the Sierra Nevada.
SAN FRANCISCO, July 29.—Information reaches here that a little girl ten years of age, a daughter of a Mr. Wilson, a resident of Central Colony, was lost in the Sierra Nevada Mountains a few days ago. The particulars of the matter are that the families of B. Marks, Mr. Wilson, and others, went to the mountains to spend the summer, and located at Dinkey Creek, about sixty miles east of Fresno. Mr. Wilson's little daughter and two other young girls went out walking together, and wandered along the creek, and by some means or other Wilson's daughter fell into the creek. Her companions advised her to go back to camp and put on dry clothes. They had crossed the creek, and supposed the little girl knew which way to go, but she did not, and started in an opposite direction, so it seems. The other children on their return home found she had not arrived. Search was at once made, but without avail. All the campers turned out to look for her. They traced her southward nearly to the Dinkey Creek grove of big trees, when she turned and wandered northward, but no further trace of her had been found. Information of the sorrowful event was sent to the sawmills and work was stopped, and all hands started out in search of the missing child. The event was of such a sad character that it has cast a gloom over the whole community. It is hardly probable that the child has survived the fright and exposure attendant upon such an affair, and the worst is to be feared.

A CLERGYMAN SUED.

A Brooklyn Pastor Accused of Sunday Evil Deeds.
NEW YORK, July 29.—Thomas J. Noblett has begun a suit against the Rev. Richard H. L. Tighe, pastor of the Grace Protestant Episcopal Chapel, in the Supreme Court of Kings County, to recover $25,000 for defamation and unlawful prosecution. He alleges in his complaint that the defendant visited his home when he was absent and instilled into the mind of his wife certain slanderous and malicious tales. Among other things it is charged that the reverend gentleman told the plaintiff's wife that plaintiff was unfaithful to her and was an unhabitual drunkard; that in consequence of these statements the plaintiff was locked up in the Kings County Inebriates' Home, and that thereafter, and in consequence of those stories, his wife sued for a divorce, and on his discharge from the Home had him arrested on a charge of assault and battery, for which he was sentenced to fifty days in the Penitentiary.

WARM SPRINGS SKELETON.

WARM SPRINGS, N. C., July 29.—In tearing down an old house in the country, five miles from this place, the skeleton of a man was found, the bones and even the cartilages in a remarkable state of preservation. Beside the skeleton were portions of a leather mail bag, of the pattern in use half a century ago. In this bag, or so much of it as were left, were upwards of thirty letters, all bearing date early in 1827. It was evident that the man had been a mail-carrier, as the letters were addressed to various persons, some of remote sections. Perfectly legible were the addresses, while the heavy paper, breaking like parchment, was neither wormeaten or torn. In one of the letters were found two bills of a State bank, which has long ago failed, each bill being of the denomination of $100. There is no reason given for the position of the skeleton in the wall.

The wife of the late General Ord telegraphed to have her husband's remains brought home. The request will not be granted, as the deceased died of yellow fever.

JOHN THOMAS, aged thirteen, of Saratoga, Pa., was killed by the cars. His mother was so affected by the shock that a babe she was nursing died in her arms of convulsions.

The recovered body of Captain Webb shows that he was killed by being dashed against rocks before he reached the whirlpool. There was a gash five inches long in his head.

Among those killed in the Rome, Watertown & Ogdensburg railroad accident was Thomas A. Hoyne, an ex-Mayor of Chicago. He was very wealthy and one of the oldest residents of Chicago.

CHARLES E. UPTON, President of the late City Bank, of Rochester, N. Y., was sentenced by Justice Rumsby to six months in the Monroe county penitentiary, on conviction of overdrawing his accounts with the bank.

In excavating for the water-main on Ninth street, in Lynchburg, Miss., between Main and Church, the stump of the Clay and Frelinghuysen pole of the memorable 1844 campaign was dug up in a well-preserved condition.

FOREPAUGH, the showman, was arrested in Saratoga, N. Y., recently on complaint of the Humane Society, for having in his employ Eddie Selborn, aged twelve, a trapeze performer. Forepaugh claimed the boy is sixteen years old.

RHODES and Bradley, two of the heaviest iron merchants of Chicago, have obtained a judgement for $82,422 in a suit growing out of a contract with the Cleveland Rolling Mill Company, in which the latter were defendants.

MRS. NELLIE MIX, formerly of Cleveland, Ohio, was found dead in her bed at her boarding house in New York. She was addicted to the excessive use of chloral and liquors. Her brother, Frank Beidling, killed himself in the Prospect House, in Cleveland, in 1872.

THIRTY-SIX Italian bootblacks were arrested at Atlantic City, N. J., and ordered to change their vocation. They were arrested under a special law of the Legislature enacting that no child under the age of eighteen shall be allowed to black boots, solicit aid or play musical instruments.

THE payments made on account of pensions since the first of the month have been very heavy, and on the 12th had reduced the Treasury reserve by nearly six million dollars below the sum set apart for the redemption of the legal tenders.
